	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	The online lecture material and following discussions made it much easier to balance a heavy school load as I was able to get them completed with a better, flexible time frame that allowed me to put in my best effort rather than being rushed last minute.
	This class was great. I loved the shorter essays and the reading was great. I would have appreciated a content advisory on texts like Fredrick douglas' Autobiography Content was VERY organized and easy to follow.
	The information provided was useful and helpful. More information could have been given from the professor about our reading material.
	consistent schedule, and the way the class was structured allowed for the best comprehension of the content.
	There were quite a few novels in this course, which would have been fine if there was more time to read them. Sometimes we would be asked to read a full book, other times we were just given a chapter or two. I think it might have been better to just stick to one or the other.

Question: Provide comments about the online components of the course
	The online courses are great! They really help if you work or have a particularly heavy school load! They make taking a required course very convenient to complete. It's a great option!
	The online course was great. It worked super well and I had no problems.
	Easy online class
	very simple and everything worked as planned.
	Much personal connection is lost with online courses. This is a criticism of online courses as a whole though, not this course specifically.
	The short quiz, discussion board layout was highly effective. It allowed me to interact and share ideas with other students and guaranteed quick, helpful feedback. However, I do not think this course fully utilized all of its online capabilities. I think more texts should have been offered in PDFs and through links, rather than stacks of expensive Norton Anthologies.
Question: Instructor Comments
HALSTROM	Perhaps my only criticism was that he was a bit slow in imputing grades, but he always gave really good constructive criticism that encouraged us to do better as well as showed us specifically what we needed to improve.
HALSTROM	Adam Halstrom is a great proffessor although I do wish he could grade essays a little faster.
HALSTROM	A little slow on grading papers, but when the feedback was received I felt as though it was thoughtful.
HALSTROM	All of the course materials were well documented. The feedback given by the professor was helpful.
HALSTROM	This course did not include any traditional lectures like 3701. I would have wanted to know more about Adam's opinions as I see him as qualified and knowledgeable.
HALSTROM	Adam was incredibly helpful and accessible even though it was an online class. One of the nicest and most caring professors I've ever had.
HALSTROM	Professor Halstrom was an excellent instructor! This is the eighth online class I've taken, and I have found that instructors of online courses are often disengaged and uninterested in their students. Professor Halstrom did a wonderful job supporting his students. The content he provided was organized, he always provided thoughtful, constructive feedback, and he was an overall positive influence throughout this course.
